1. A garrison in Kolobrzeg (Kolberg) consists of the following units:
 - a. One armored regiment¹
 - b. Two or three regiments made up of light and heavy artillery and antiaircraft guns
 - c. A battalion or a regiment of signal corps troops
 - d. One work battalion of about 800 men
2. A company from the Polish Navy and a battalion of naval infantry is located in the harbor area west of the harbor canal. There is also a company of WOP (Border Guards) troops consisting of 250 men and a Soviet naval unit of 80 men stationed east of the harbor canal. 25X1
3. There are one or two coastal artillery battalions and many barracks in the coastal area west of and in the vicinity of the harbor. It is estimated that there are about 1,000 men in this area. The entire area is closed off.
4. The military camp of Mrzezyno (DEEP-N54-09, E15-18) is considerably enlarged. Artillery troops are stationed here most of the year, and in the southwestern part armored troops and infantry troops are stationed.
5. In the coastal area east of Kolobrzeg in the neighborhood of Bagicz (Rodenhagen), there are mainly Soviet antiaircraft, coastal artillery and air corps troops totaling about 4,000 men. The Soviet troops stationed in this area are seldom seen in Kolobrzeg.
6. Soviet troops are stationed in and around Gieszkow which is about 6 kilometers southwest of Koszalin. It is reported that these troops make up two to three infantry and artillery regiments and one MVD unit.

1. Comment: Possibly a tank regiment.
